Mainframe Capability Summary

DDC
DINÉ DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION

DDC's mainframe infrastructure support is driven by a commitment to delivering best-value hosting and computing solutions tailored to meet the evolving needs of our clients. Since 2008, we have partnered with a range of defense agencies to support the mainframe, solidifying our reputation as a proven and reliable partner in fulfilling mission-essential requirements.

Modern distributed architectures and networked resource sharing originated on the mainframe, which has evolved into today's cloud computing. As cloud technologies have progressed, the mainframe has also advanced. The mainframe's stability and security have made modernization and integration key success factors in our strategies. DDC has enabled our clients to realize the significance of reliability, availability, and serviceability (RAS) and value in tailored modernization approaches.

We recognize the importance of diversifying service catalog offerings to maximize cost savings and performance. Through our proven history of excellence and commitment to innovation, we offer agile, innovative approaches to client offerings, including database modernization, Database as a Service (DBaaS), and containerization with co-location-driven performance enhancements.

GOVERNMENT-SUPPORTED APPLICATIONS

- ▶ MYPAY management system provides access to pay information and documentation for six million DFAS payroll customers, including active and reserve component and National Guard military service members, military retirees and annuitants, and a range of federal civilian employees. MyPay is DFAS' most visible and critical system.

- ▶ MOCAS (Mechanization of Contract Administration Services) is an integrated contract administration and payment system that provides DCMA and DFAS with payment, management, financial, and delivery data to customers, buying offices, and inventory managers.

- ▶ DSS (Distribution Standard System) supports receiving, storing, and distribution of supply items to warfighters and peacekeepers

- ▶ DIFS (Defense Integrated Financial System) is a legacy, mainframe-based financial system, accessible via DISA's Multi-Host Internet Access Portal, providing DoD-level financial management for the Security Assistance program. This includes centralized Foreign Military Sales (FMS) trust fund accounting, foreign customer billing, and financial management reporting.

- ▶ DCSA (Defense Counterintelligence Security Agency) Background Investigation System Enterprises (BIES) Program Management Office for Technical Support Services (Distributed and Mainframe) manages the operations, security, and maintenance of the OPM IT system providing security clearance background investigations. DCSA assumed full operational control of these systems in October 2020. OPM provides limited IT services as defined in an Interagency Agreement to ensure continued operations of the BIES system until NBIS is fully deployed.
